

Mr. Alexander, chairman of the committee on ways and means, reported a bill entitled, a supplement to the act to incorporate the Farmers and Millers Bank of Hagerstown, Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table:

Mr. Powell moved that the house adjourn;

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Brengle,

The house took up for consideration the bill reported by Mr. Matthias, entitled, an act to provide for the election of a sheriff for Carroll county, and for other purposes;

On motion of Mr. Brengle,

Said bill was amended by adding at the end of 6th section the following—

“And which said bond or bonds shall be kept by the person or persons before whom the same may be taken, until the same can be delivered by the said person or persons to the clerk of Carroll county, to whom the said person or persons shall deliver the said bond, as soon as practicable after the execution thereof, to be by him recorded; which said bond or bonds shall, in all and every respect be on the same footing as the sheriffs bonds of other counties.”

The said bill was then read the second time, as amended, and passed.

The Clerk of the Senate returned the bill, entitled, an act supplemental to an act limiting the time for the collection of fees of attorneys, solicitors, clerks, registers, sheriffs, and other officers of this State, passed at December session 1833, ch. 258, endorsed, “will pass,” ordered to be engrossed;

And delivered a communication from John Durburrow, secretary of the Washington and Baltimore Turnpike Road company, enclosing an abstract of the accounts of said company, in conformity to the directions of an act of Assembly passed at November session 1812, endorsed, “referred to the consideration of the House of Delegates;”

Which was read and referred to the committee on internal improvements.

On motion of Mr. Brengle,

The amendment proposed by the Senate to the bill reported by Mr. Matthias, entitled, an act to appoint commissioners of the tax for Carroll county, were taken up for consideration;

The said amendments were then read the second time, assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

On motion of Mr. McLean,
